WEDDINGS IN THE COOK ISLANDS

The Cook Islands have a relatively relaxed policy allowing international citizens to be legally married. After applying for a wedding licence on any weekday, the couple is required to reside in the Cook Islands for a further 3 working days prior to the wedding ceremony. If this is not possible, the process can be expedited by applying for a waiver, which still requires one full working day prior to the wedding ceremony. The couple is also required to produce their birth certificates (in English), passports and any 'decree absolute' nature.
